Together We Will Make a Difference!

Our holiday plea this year is to request that if you could make a donation to help homeless animals. It would keep us doing what we do. To have this home here until they get their forever home. Your generosity is a gift so much appreciated. The benefits help so many animals..

From our President...Sharing her visions

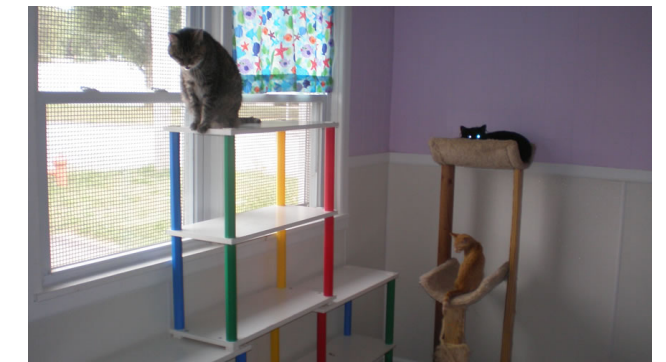

The Planned New Shelter

Things are starting to come into focus. First I would like to extend a great big thank you to all of our great volunteer for all their support. I would also like to wish all of those that adopted, donated, and volunteer a very happy holiday season. This year is quickly moving into a New Year. Yes, things such as the plan construction of our new shelter are on top of the list of things to get accomplished in the up coming year.

I think I can speak for all the volunteers here at the shelter when I say, " We envision some great people that will join our team and become volunteers, or make a monetary donation toward the building of our new shelter." I know that many share my dreams of having a shelter, large enough to give home to many more animals looking for that great forever home, and home for the so called unwanted animals. I will welcome the day when Animal Aid will have those large comfortable rooms, with room to play for all the animals that come to Animal Aid.

Together we can make a difference, and too make visions of a brighter tomorrow. We wish to save the lives of many...With your help we can. Adoptions were down, but incoming animals were up quite a bit. Hopefully things will improve in the upcoming year, and the adoptions go up greatly.

Sincerely; Vickie Sanders

A Friend.

There are people you think a friend. Yet you find that they are not loyal to you at all. The one's that never speak the simple word of thanks. No need to feel like a fool when they prove loyal to to you only as a tool for their own needs. When you stop feeding their greed...

Their need of you will change and they will soon find that fool to feed their greed. You did not lose a friend you never had. For one can never lose something...

they never had to start with. If you want loyalty. Adopt a dog. They are man's best friend.

A LITTLE INSIGHT

Here at Animal Aid are volunteers, who give so much of their time and energy caring for our animals- temporary fostering, cleaning feeding, holding, brushing and exercising. Let me give you a little insight about Animal Aid Humane Society...

Animal Aid Humane Society was incorporated in 1998 as a not-for-profit 501c3 all volunteer organization. In 2000 we purchased the current "little white house with the dark shutters" and began to fulfill a dream of having a larger area to house unwanted animals. We put up a fence so we could have a large fenced in yard, which was the start of many of our dreams and conversations. We are licensed by the city of Moline's government authorities, as well as the State of Illinois Department of Agriculture, also Iowa's Department of Agriculture, and too by the Illinois Attorney General, and Illinois Secretary of State.

Animal Aid is governed by an elected board of directors, and officers who provide guidance for the shelter. We are funded by donations, fund-raises, bequests and grants. We receive no city, county, state or federal funds.

We are a cageless, no-kill animal shelter run entirely by volunteers. Nobody receives a salary. NOBODY. Any money we get goes for the care of our animals, which also, of course, means the care of their "home here." Sometimes an animal that has been born and spent most of its life at Animal Aid gets adopted. The volunteers are always so happy that a "long-termer" has found a for ever home, but the animal is always terrified leaving what might be the only home he has ever known. Often if the animal was born at Animal Aid, the day it gets adopted is only the second time the dog, or cat has been through the front door (the first time being when it was taken to the vet for a check up, or for spay or neutering,

We have always been a cageless shelter. The only reason that an animal would be in a cage is if it is a newborn, it is a new arrival or if it is sick. We also take animals to various sites for adoption and they are in a cage when they are there. The dogs we have are in large sized kennels, not cages.

Since the shelter is entirely run by volunteers, we are always in need of people who love to work with animals and have a little time to volunteer. Call and leave a message at Animal Aid (309)797-6550), or email Vickie at Vickieskittens@att.net You will learn that there are many possible ways to volunteer.

If you cannot volunteer, won't you consider a monetary donation? Please believe me, your donation will help Animal Aid Humane Society continue to care for many homeless and helpless animals. If you do not have time to volunteer and are not able to contribute, thank you so much for the time you spent reading our news letter. You can also visit us on our website at www.molineanimalaid.org . Join us on our FaceBook page, " animal aid humane society".

If you have never been to Animal Aid Humane Society, and if you are in the area. I would like to extend a personal invitation for you to stop in during open hours.

We adopted an older cat from Animal Aid and she is just the sweetest thing. So my husband and I decided we would volunteer clean there every Saturday morning. I love the kitties and so far, whenever I pick one out as my new favorite, they get adopted out. I don't want that to stop happening so I keep picking favorites. Last Saturday, little Millie got a forever home and I was there when they picked her out. I will miss Millie as she was always first to greet me, but it's just so rewarding to see them get a forever home. Vickie is SUCH a devoted friend to these animals..words just can't say enough of how good she is.

Two years ago I adopted a four-year-old part Maine Coon named Julien. (He is now called Glaurion.) It was 104 degrees when I brought him to my apartment. He stayed under the bed until nightfall, when he came out to explore. We bonded very quickly and he still has quirks I need to learn, but mostly we know each other's habits. He's sitting on a chair right next to me now. Whoever it was that returned him to the shelter gave up a wonderful guy--and he's all mine.

Shanna Roberts and family adopted Crosby, formerly Henry, from Animal Aid last Saturday Oct 21st. She reports he is adjusting great and they love him lot's! Thanks so much for adopting from Animal Aid Humane Society!!!
